

6516206496.txt

Please leave my XM service alone. I pay a monthly fee for this programming content and it is far superior to anything offered locally --if it wasn't, I wouldn't pay for it. The local weather and traffic information is worth the price of the subscription alone. This should be a matter of personal choice -- not federal mandate. We live in a free market and it should remain that way.
Thank you.
Ray Eckenrode